Synopsis

Olga Kurylenko (QUANTUM OF SOLACE), in her screen debut, speaks volumes with her beautiful dark eyes, and turns this mysterious and hauntingly erotic film into a gorgeous, complex, riveting cinematic journey. After being fired from her job at a lemonade bottling plant, Iris moves to a port town in search of work. She happens upon a secretarial position at a laboratory where a perplexing scientist specializes in the preservation of personal mementos. Without fully grasping what is at play around her, Iris gradually engages in a disturbing love affair with her enigmatic employer.

Directed by Diane Bertrand and starring Olga Kurylenko of QUANTUM OF SOLACE, Marc Barbe, Stipe Erceg, Edith Scob.
